Alberta Japan Office
Place Canada 3F
3-37, Akasaka 7-chome, Minato-ku, Tokyo 107-0052

How to get to the Alberta Japan Office:

The Alberta Japan Office is located in the Canadian Embassy building, (Place Canada) in Tokyo. The nearest subway station is Aoyama 1-chome. You can reach this station either by the Hanzomon line (purple line), the Ginza line (gold line) or the Ohedo line (burgundy line). When you arrive at Aoyama 1-chome station, you should exit the ticket gate on the Minami (South) Aoyama side.

When you leave the ticket gate, you will be in the basement of the Aoyama Twin Building. Turn to the left and walk towards exit 4.

There are two exit 4s; take the one for Aoyama Dori Ave and the Akasaka Post Office. When you exit, you will be right across the street from the Akasaka Post Office. Cross the street and go towards the Akasaka Post Office along the main street, Aoyama Dori. You will be walking against traffic, and there will be trees along the left hand side of the street.

Continue along Aoyama Dori past the post office, and the Canadian Embassy, a large gray building, will be the fifth building on your right. Use the main entrance on the first floor with the sliding glass doors. Take the elevator up to the third floor and you will find the Alberta Japan Office.

If coming by taxi, just print this map and show it to the driver.
